Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the reasonable preparation and presentation of financial statements, in accordance with the Accounting and Accounting Standards Financial information in force in Colombia, and the internal control necessary to prepare financial statements free of material impropriety, due to fraud or error.

In the preparation of the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing and disclosing the Fund's ability to continue as a business in progress and apply the operating company accounting principle, and report, where appropriate, the problems compliance and implementation of the ongoing business accounting principle. Such responsibility includes selecting and implementing appropriate accounting policies; as well as establishing reasonable accounting estimates in the circumstances.

Government officials are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Fund.

Statutory Auditor's Responsibility

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance that the financial statements as a whole are free from material microcurrent, due to fraud or error, and to issue a report audit with our opinion.

Reasonable security is a high degree of security but does not guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the International Audit Standards in force in Colombia will always detect a material impropriety when it exists. Material inaccuracies may be caused by fraud or error and are considered materials if, individually or in aggregate form, they are deemed to reasonably influence the economic decisions that users make from the financial statements.

As part of our audit, we applied professional judgment and maintained an attitude of professional skepticism throughout the audit. Also:

- We identify and assess potential material impropriety risks in the financial statements, due to fraud or error, design and apply audit procedures to respond to such risks and obtain sufficient and adequate Audit evidence to support our opinion.

The risk of not detecting a material inaccuracy due to fraud is higher against that caused by an error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, deliberate omissions, intentionally erroneous statements, or circumvention of control Internal.

- We gained knowledge of the internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate depending on the circumstances.
- We assess whether the accounting policies applied are adequate, the reasonableness of the accounting estimates and the disclosures of management in this regard.
- We evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the financial statements, including the information disclosed, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and facts in a manner that achieves their faithful representation.

- We obtained the necessary information to properly fulfil our functions.

We conclude on the proper use made by the management of the accounting principle of business in progress and based on audit evidence, obtained to date from in our report, we determine that there is no material uncertainty related to facts or conditions that may give rise to significant doubts about the capacity of the Fund to continue as a going on business.

- We inform government officials, among others, the following matters:
- The scope and timing of the planned Audit, significant Audit findings, and relevant internal control deficiencies we identified during the Audit.
- The key matters of the audit which, in our professional opinion, were the most important in the audit of the financial statements of the current period. We describe these matters in our audit report unless legal or regulatory provisions prohibit their public disclosure or, in extremely rare circumstances, conclude that your report may have adverse consequences that outweigh the public interest benefits derived from communication.
